Approval of Thursday Evening Minutes

The Minute Review Committee is reviewing the minutes of last night's session and they will be approved when all reviews are in.

President Denninger made the following statement about the previous evening's moves on removing Overture BL 04-22-15 from the Omnibus Resolution.

"Last evening, minutes before the 39th convention was gavelled to order, a good faith decision was made by the Convention Chair, Floor Committee Chair, and Parliamentarian to honor the request of a duly credentialed voting delegate to endeavor to take from Resolution BL 04-22-10 Omnibus A, Overture OV BL 04- 22 -15 that had been determined by the Floor Committee to be most appropriately placed in an Omnibus Resolution that would result in further consideration of the referenced Overture by the Southeastern District Board of Directors.

"During the unfolding of that process, the requirement of Bylaw X. 1. Amendments was noted by the Parliamentarian: 'These Bylaws may be amended at a District Convention by the majority vote of those members present at a regular session, provided there is written notice to congregations concerning the proposed amendment 30 days in advance of the Convention.'

Another delegate expressed belief that this Bylaw requirement had been met by the dissemination of advance convention materials to SED congregations and/or voting delegates, which included the Overture in question. In response, the Chair ruled, in effect, that such dissemination did not meet the Bylaw requirement of ‘written notice to congregations concerning the proposed amendment 30 days in advance of the Convention.’

“After the Chair’s ruling was challenged by another duly credentialed voting delegate, a vote of convention delegates upheld the ruling of the Chair, resulting in the referenced Overture remaining in the referenced Omnibus Resolution, which would send the Overture to the District Board of Directors for careful consideration. The Omnibus Resolution will be considered during today’s convention session.”

Floor Committee 02: Congregational Outreach: Chair: First Vice President Elect Rev. Dr. Lloyd Gaines

Committee 2 read, moved and seconded the following resolution.

CO 02-22-01A Towards Racial Justice and the Great Commission

WHEREAS, Racial injustice is a shameful sin, as well as an obstacle to the Great Commission, it would be irresponsible of us not to examine our human failings with respect both to the Great Commandment of love and the Great Commission to make disciples of all people; and

WHEREAS, Racial injustice remains a severe obstacle to carrying out the Great Commission of making disciples of all tribes, languages, and nations through the Gospel and drawing them into the body of Christ; and

WHEREAS, Martin Luther taught, and we confess, that the Fifth Commandment, You shall not murder, means we should fear and love God so that we do not hurt or harm our neighbors, but help and defend them in every physical need, which most of us have shamefully failed to do especially regarding our fellow Americans who are Black; and

WHEREAS, The picture of Christians that we have often given others is not that of compassionate people, but instead of people whose faith is without much love when it comes to racial injustices, an offense that has kept many people, Black and White, and people of other ethnic groups from joining our church; and

WHEREAS, We lament the widespread silence of Christians in the face of slavery and other racial injustices; and

WHEREAS, The impact of slavery is deeply embedded in our nation's culture - enforced by law, custom, and habits, including extreme racist laws and lynching that terrorize Black people, especially in the South, as well as discrimination throughout the nation in jobs, housing, education, and other areas that enforced preferential treatment of Whites and pushed a great many Black and people of other ethnic groups into absolute or relative poverty, doing significant damage to families; and

WHEREAS, Racial injustices, past and present, cause great suffering to many Americans and harm our entire nation; and

WHEREAS, Past discrimination leaves in place economic and social liabilities that would persist even if racial prejudice suddenly disappeared; and

WHEREAS, Racial justice, for which all of us are responsible, does not depend only on our kindness toward others (essential as that is), but on just laws, institutions, and practices that are genuinely fair and reflect action to repair unfairness that has accumulated over centuries of racial injustices and oppression; and

WHEREAS, Many LCMS convention resolutions on the issue of race have asserted the clear biblical teaching that all humans, whatever the color of their skin, have been created in the image of God and redeemed through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus; yet we continue to lag in mission outreach that crosses racial lines, and in addressing racial injustices that divide our nation – offenses that put us in need of God's mercy and call us to action; and

WHEREAS, The report of Synod's Commission on Theology and Church Relations (Racism and the Church 1994) documents a disturbing pattern in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod of following the path of our surrounding culture regarding slavery and other racial injustices, thus conforming to the world rather than being transformed in Christ (Romans 12:2); and

WHEREAS, Our former policy of having racially segregated churches and schools resulted in turning people of color and other ethnic groups away from our church doors and in fewer new members of color, yet these habits and attitudes of old sins persist, making our outreach across racial lines more difficult now than it should be; and

WHEREAS, Despite some commendable exceptions, too few Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod members have been active or vocal in protesting racial injustices, a silence that is seen as consent; and

WHEREAS, We give thanks to God for courageous leaders among us, Black and White, along with the thousands of people of color forgiven and filled with the merciful love of Christ, who over the years have overcome racial barriers and do so even today, we still have much to learn about how to be racially inclusive; for all of which we seek the grace of God to find more faithful ways of reflecting God's love and our unity in Christ; and

WHEREAS, To reach deeply into the life of our congregations, an unprecedented church-wide campaign that is truly filled with the love and joy of the Holy Spirit cries out for our response; and

WHEREAS, A Day of Repentance and Prayer for Racial could be enhanced with simple but starkly honest background material, highlighting racial injustices in the nation's history, and even in its Christian churches, including our own Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod; and

WHEREAS, Such an event should be held Synod-wide urging all LCMS pastors, congregations, and other affiliates of Synod to participate perhaps on the first Sunday of February or the Sunday closest to the Juneteenth celebration; and

WHEREAS, This event should be a joyous, Spirit-filled day that can deepen our faith in Christ, empower us to seek racial justice, and help us eagerly to welcome people across all racial and ethnic groups into fellowship with us through our Lord and Savior; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That by the next Synod Convention, we respectfully urge the President of Synod and its district presidents to have designated a specified annual Sunday as "A Day of Repentance and Prayer for Racial Justice and Healing" in our land urging all LCMS pastors and congregations and other affiliates of Synod to participate, and be it

RESOLVED, That we see this day of corporate and individual repentance and prayer as a long-overdue confession of sins against people of color, which most of us, by our silence, have mainly kept hidden even from ourselves, and for which we truly apologize, seek their forgiveness, and beg for God's great mercy that sets us free to be reconciled with all people regardless of race or color; and finally be it

RESOLVED, That we become known as a church body that eagerly welcomes people across all racial and ethnic groups into fellowship with us through our Lord and Savior.

Several persons approached microphones to speak. One spoke against the resolution as painting with too broad a brush and appearing to be a “critical race theory” product. Another questioned the use of a 1994 report for a basis of a whereas. Another spoke against the unclarity of the term racial justice. A couple of friendly amendments were made (10th whereas added the word “yet” before we still; first resolved, inserted words “we respectfully urge” before the President of Synod, “to have” before “designate”, change designate to “designated,” and “annual” before Sunday; 2nd resolved correct the typo of “or” between race and color. Several also spoke in favor of the resolution as promoting proper repentance and in accord with the historical background of discrimination in the LCMS.

A substitute motion was presented by Jim Knill, Pastoral delegate, Triangle, VA, and was read by the Secretary Pro Tem.

SUB CO 02-22-01A

WHEREAS, The Holy Scriptures affirm that all human beings have a common mother, frequently noted in scientific literature as Mitochondrial Eve (geneticists Rebecca Cann, Robert Lewin, and others), making us all brothers and sisters from the beginning; and

WHEREAS, In many instances, both church and world have ignored that fact and have sought to create or even incite divisions along racial lines; and

WHEREAS, Our sinful human nature has sought to elevate one race and devalue others; and

WHEREAS, These sinful divisions and devaluations have caused, and in some instances still cause pain and suffering to portions of God's people, the economic and social effects of which are real; and

WHEREAS, God Himself seems to have shown His displeasure with racial distinctions in that, when Moses' sister protested her brother's marriage to a Cushite (Ethiopian) woman, the Lord made Miriam a leper for a time; and

WHEREAS, There is no room in the Kingdom of God or among His people for divisions and discrimination in word and deed, nor is there room even for sinful division and discrimination in the heart now, be it therefore

RESOLVED, That the congregations and the people of the Southeastern District of the LCMS do everything necessary that there be zero deeds or words among us that support or encourage racial divisions; and be it

RESOLVED, That each of us examine our hearts to see if we hold or harbor any prejudicial thoughts against anyone of a different race and, if we do, repent, seek God's forgiveness, and live with a renewed heart and attitude; and

RESOLVED, That if any racial offenses done by us against an individual or individuals become known to us, we seek reconciliation, in order that there may be true unity in the Body of Christ among us; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That any congregations, school, or other entity within the Southeastern District that is discovered to be engaging in racial division or discrimination be called to account, brought to acknowledge its offensive behavior, and guided by proper authorities within the church body to bring its behavior within the clear will of the God they are established to serve.

Delegates were asked if they wished to consider the Substitute Motion.

Agreed: Yes - 115; No - 108

In order to get the resolution in printed form to the delegates, this issue was placed on the table for a time.

Committee 2 read, moved and seconded the following resolution.

CO 02-22-02A To Address the Lutheran Teacher Shortage and Low Teacher Salaries by Initiating a Student Debt Assistance Program for LCMS Commissioned Minister – Teacher

Overture: OV CO 02-22-04

WHEREAS, Our Lutheran Schools struggle to find rostered teachers to serve in the classrooms of our High Schools, Middle Schools, Elementary Schools, Pre-schools and Child Development Centers¹; and

WHEREAS, Research has shown that a primary reason for this struggle is the lower salary offered for teachers within the Lutheran school systems^{2,3}; and

WHEREAS, Concordia Plans reported in 2021 that 27% of LCMS workers have student debt that averages $46,000 per student; and

WHEREAS, The reality of student loan debt is an important part of the decision to seek employment outside the Lutheran school; and

WHEREAS, The Southeastern District LCMS already has in place a Tuition Assistance Program to financially assist those who have pledged their service to become rostered LCMS workers, which has in the past three years awarded 48 students more than $98,700, and has resources in place to assist present rostered workers seek student loan repayment; and

WHEREAS, It is a value that we fill our schools with rostered workers⁴; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That a National Lutheran Teacher Student Debt Assistance Program be developed that recognizes the service of Lutheran Teachers through student loan debt repayment assistance; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a committee comprised of members of the Education Department of the Concordia University System, LCMS School Ministry, Concordia Plans, The Foundation, and the Council of Presidents develops the loan repayment assistance process; and be it further

RESOLVED, That reports of this work be provided through regular communications of the Synod; and be it finally

RESOLVED, That the Southeastern District, LCMS memorialize the Synod in Convention to adopt National Lutheran Teacher Student Debt Assistance Program.

Footnotes:

1. The number of new commissioned teachers has steadily declined since 2005 (Concordia University System [CUS] Board for University Education [BUE] statistics); and
The fulfillment rate of requests for first-year Synod-trained candidates to LCMS calling entities has declined from 63 percent in 2010 to 30 percent in 2018 because of the lack of available Synod-trained candidates (CUS BUE statistics);
The CUS only graduated 23 early childhood educators, 39 elementary educators, and 32 secondary educators in 2018 (CUS BUE statistics); (2019 Resolution 12:02A, p.222 of 2019 LCMS Convention Proceedings)
2. Theme 8 of Office of National Mission's "LCMS Church Worker Wellness Insights," presentation by Rev. Robert Zagore, Office of National Mission to Gospel 2019
 - ❖ Financial wellbeing is unique among worker needs in that the major problems are beyond the worker's ability to change – most often the problem is that the workers are in a mathematically impossible situation
 - Workers are under-paid for their skill level and workload
 - Costs for health care are being pushed to the workers
 - Young workers are burdened with significant student debt
 - ❖ Many calling bodies are unable to pay their workers what is necessary
 - "The toughest work is being done in the places that can pay the least" (i.e. dying congregations, inner-city churches, immigrant ministries, etc.)
3. Note: Conclusion of Final Report of the Blue-Ribbon Committee on Lutheran Schools (2019 R.63)
"Lutheran education is a noble calling, yet it is facing significant challenges. Data support a real need for synodical entities to bring resolution to indebtedness for church workers. With the impending retirement of many teachers and administrators coupled with the diminishing numbers of Lutheran Teacher Diploma (LTD) candidates enrolling in the Concordia University System, there is an increased sense of urgency to recruit and retain qualified young people in the Lutheran teaching ministry. The desire to enter the vocation of education is lessening due to several factors including classroom management issues, public perception of the profession and state regulations. Additionally, many students are coming out of college with significant debt and are paid salaries below recommended levels. The trendline on debt and salary must change or the teacher shortage will likely continue. Teachers and administrators are in a great position to influence current and future students about the joys and rewards of church work and need to be intentional in their efforts to help recruit new students for the Concordia University System." (2019 LCMS Convention Workbook, p.344-348.)
4. The 2016 Synod Convention Res. 8-01A, "To Encourage and Strengthen the Lutheran Ethos of Our LCMS Early Childhood Centers, Elementary Schools, and High Schools" specifically identified that a characteristic of a Lutheran school with a strong Lutheran ethos has "LCMS-trained Lutheran teachers ... who know and are committed to the truths of the Scriptures as confessed in our Lutheran Confessions (2019 LCMS Convention Proceedings, Resolution 12-02 A, p.221)"

An amendment was moved to support Classical Lutheran College (in formation). The Chair ruled the amendment out of order and the Convention supported the ruling .

Yes – 180; No – 28

TP 02-22-07A Toward Racial Equality and the Great Commission

WHEREAS, The sin of racism is an obstacle to the Great Commission, it would be irresponsible of us not to examine our human failings with respect both to the Great Commandment of love and the Great Commission to make disciples of all tribes, languages, and nations through the Gospel and drawing them into the body of Christ (2 Corinthians 19:7, Romans 2:4, Galatians 2:6, Ephesians 6:9, Colossians 3:25, 1 Peter 1:17, Matthew 28:19-20, Mark 16:15-16, Luke 24:47, Acts 1:8); and

WHEREAS, Martin Luther taught, and we confess, that the Fifth Commandment, You shall not murder, means we should fear and love God so that we do not hurt or harm our neighbors, but help and defend them in every physical need, which many have shamefully failed to do especially regarding our fellow Americans who are Black and people of other ethnic minority groups (Luke 10:25–37, Proverbs 24:1-2, Ephesians 4:31-32, Matthew 25:42-43, Matthew 5:22, 1 John 4: 19-21, Proverbs 31:8-9); and

WHEREAS, We lament the silence of Christians in the face of slavery in the past and other racial injustices that continue to this day, such as discrimination in jobs, housing, education, and other areas, past and present, which cause great suffering to many Americans and harm our entire nation, which leaves in place economic and social liabilities that would persist even if racial prejudice suddenly disappeared; and

WHEREAS, Justice, which goes beyond kindness toward others, is based on laws, institutions, and practices that are fair and just to all; and

WHEREAS, Many LCMS convention resolutions on the issue of race have asserted the clear biblical teaching that all humans, whatever the color of their skin, have been created in the image of God and redeemed through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus; yet we continue to lag in mission outreach that crosses racial lines, and in addressing racial injustices – offenses that put us in need of God's mercy and call us to action¹; and

WHEREAS, The report of Synod's Commission on Theology and Church Relations (Racism and the Church 1994) documents a disturbing pattern in The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod of following the path of our surrounding culture regarding slavery and other racial injustices, thus conforming to the world rather than being transformed in Christ (Romans 12:2); and

WHEREAS, Our former policy of having racially segregated churches and schools resulted in turning people of color and other ethnic groups away from our church doors and in fewer new members of color, yet these habits and attitudes of old sins persist, making our outreach across racial lines more difficult now than it should be; and

WHEREAS, We give thanks to God for courageous leaders among us who over the years have overcome racial barriers and do so even today, we still have much to learn about how to be racially inclusive; for all of which we seek the grace of God to find more faithful ways of reflecting God's love and our unity in Christ; and

WHEREAS, To reach deeply into the life of our congregations, a church-wide campaign that is truly filled with the love and joy of the Holy Spirit cries out for our response; and

WHEREAS, A Day of Repentance and Prayer for Racial could be enhanced with simple but starkly honest background material, highlighting sins of racism in our nation's history, and even in its Christian churches, including our own Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod; and

WHEREAS, Such an event should be held Synod-wide urging all LCMS pastors, congregations, and other affiliates of Synod to participate perhaps on Life Sunday or another specified date; and

WHEREAS, This event should be a joyous, Spirit-filled day that can deepen our faith in Christ, empower us to seek justice, and help us eagerly to welcome people across all racial and ethnic groups into fellowship with us through our Lord and Savior; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That by the next Synod Convention, we respectfully urge the President of Synod and its district presidents to incorporate within our annual celebration of life an encouraging call to repent of all sins against the equal value of life created in God's image, including, but not limited to, all sins devaluing people due to their tribe, language, skin color, or people group, urging all LCMS pastors and congregations and other affiliates of Synod to participate, and be it

RESOLVED, That we see this day of repentance and prayer as a long-overdue confession of sins of commission and omission against people of color, for which we truly repent, and seek God's forgiveness and great mercy in Christ, that sets all of us free to be reconciled with all people regardless of race or color, and be it finally

RESOLVED, That we become known as a church body that eagerly welcomes people across all racial and ethnic groups into fellowship with us through our Lord and Savior.
