God's mission heart beating through you.

The Great Sending: That the members of congregations, schools, and missions will experience a renewal of Gospel passion.

Lord Jesus, on the night after you rose from the dead, You told your disciples: “As the Father sent Me, I am sending you.” We are believers today because You worked through people that You sent to us. Remind us that You are sending us to people. Renew our passion, encourage and strengthen each of us in our congregations, schools, and missions, that we may live every moment as people You are sending into the world. With the Father and the Spirit, You are God forever. Amen.
